

Full Time or Part Time Small Animal Veterinary wanted - Maternity Cover

An amazing opportunity to work as part of a talented, highly collaborative team in a great location! We are an independently owned and purpose built small animal hospital who are looking for a vet to provide maternity leave cover, with potential for ongoing work. We have a well established team of 3 full time vets (you would be the 4th), 9 support staff and 2 kennel hands.

What we are looking for

- Small animal veterinarian, experience preferred but new graduates welcome to apply. You must hold a veterinary degree eligible for registration in Australia.
- 6-12 month maternity leave cover, with the possibility for ongoing work
- Open to full-time or part-time arrangements, able to be flexible with hours
- A person with a positive, can-do attitude, solid work ethic and willingness to work collaboratively in a team.

What we offer

- $80,000-120,000 salary, negotiable based on experience with a $5000 relocation bonus
- $2000 CPD allowance + 1 week study leave with strong emphasis on continuing education
- A wide range case load including surgery, consulting, dentistry, internal medicine and occasional exotics. We are happy to facilitate your preferences and encourage development in areas of your interest.
- Minimal on-call with generous remuneration: 6pm-10pm one night per week + 1 in 4 weekends. Negotiable for the right candidate.
- Highly collaborative team with a positive culture and an individualised approach to care
- Well equipped, purpose built hospital including in-house IDEXX pathology, digital x-rays, Easote Ultrasound, FireCr Dental X-rays, electrocautery, tonometer and more!
- Strong established connections with specialists (VetVision, ARH and CVES in Canberra, VSOS mobile surgeries). Great opportunities to gain experience from those working above GP level.
- LGBTQIA+ friendly team

About Goulburn

- Quality, affordable housing within easy reach of Canberra and Sydney, also close to the beautiful Southern Highlands and South Coast.

- Great range of recreational activities easily accessible in town - large aquatic centre, multiple parks and playgrounds, and a long river walk
- Plenty of great cafes and restaurants - including the historic Old Goulburn Brewery
- Lots of cultural and historic locations - two art galleries, frequent theatre performances, Rocky Hill War Memorial and Riversdale Homestead.
- Heaps of community groups and local events including the Goulburn Show, the Lilac Festival and the Goulburn Multicultural Festival!
